BiH Presidency member Milorad Dodik pointed out at a meeting Thursday with German Foreign Minister Annalena Baerbock that the strengthening of BiH cannot be based on dismantling Republika Srpska, and that he is ready for an agreement that will make BiH a constitutionally feasible country.

[Dodik] expressed great gratitude to Minister Baerbock for her interest in the situation in BiH and the Western Balkans as a whole, says a press release from the Office of the Serb member of the BiH Presidency.

Dodik said, “I proposed concrete steps that could relax the situation in BiH and enable BiH’s return to its European path.”
