Lajčák meets with Dodik, Džaferović – SRNA

EU Special Representative to the Western Balkans Miroslav Lajčák met Friday on the sidelines of the Antalya Diplomatic Forum with BiH Presidency members Milorad Dodik and Šefik Džaferović.

“We discussed issues of BiH’s functionality, reform of the Electoral Law, BiH’s progress on the European path,” Lajčak said.

Lajčak said there were different views, but that the common goal is to help BiH on the European path, because that is what the majority of citizens want.

“Especially because of the developments in Ukraine, it is important for the Western Balkans to show that it can solve its own challenges and that it is part of solving process, not part of the problem,” Lajčak pointed out.
