Mazalica: U.S. position a significant step forward – SRNA

📅 May 13, 2026

SRNA reports:

The position of the United States at the UN Security Council session on BiH is a significant step forward, as it could be heard that the future high representative must respect the sovereignty of the country and that decisions should be made by local institutions without international pressure, the head of the SNSD Caucus in the Republika Srpska National Assembly Srđan Mazalica told SRNA.

“We have already had indications of such positions, but now it has been explicitly stated,” Mazalica said.
