

Saud Abdulaziz Kabli
Director of Communications

The Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia in Washington, DC

Saud Kabli currently serves as the Director of Communications at the Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia in Washington, DC, where he is responsible for communications and diplomatic work building stronger relations between the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the United States.

As one of his roles at the Embassy, he previously served as Chief of Staff to current Minister of Foreign Affairs Prince Faisal bin Farhan during his time in Washington as Senior Adviser in the Embassy.

Prior to serving in Washington, Saud spent a year working in the Media Department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Riyadh, where he was responsible for the department strategic transformation into the Public Diplomacy Division.

He was responsible for establishing relations with the Egyptian political and media communities, and with the Egyptian political parties after the 2011 revolution as part of his five years of service as the Head of Political Section, and then Head of Media Section at the Embassy of Saudi Arabia in Cairo, Egypt.

Before joining the Saudi Foreign Service, he worked as a Desk Officer for the Secretary General of the League of Arab States, as a journalist, and briefly before that he worked in the Saudi private sector.

Saud holds an MA in Public Policy and Administration and a BA in Political Science from The American University in Cairo.

These materials are distributed by LS2group on behalf of the Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia. Additional information is on file with the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.