Katie,

For the show prep and ahead of the 3:45 CT segment today to discuss the Sudan evacuations with Fahad Nazer (Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia spokesperson) I wanted to share the following:

Yesterday the Embassy released a press release announcing Saudi Arabia's success in evacuating 357 Nationals from 27 countries from Sudan, including the US. Below is a link to the release.

Saudi Arabia Successfully Evacuates 357 Nationals From 27 Countries from Sudan April 24, 2023

In continuation of the evacuation efforts made by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia under the directives of the Kingdom's leadership, several evacuees arrived from the Republic of Sudan to the city of Jeddah today.

The number of arriving individuals is approximately (199), which include Saudi nationals and nationals of the following countries (United States of America, United Kingdom, Sweden, Italy, Qatar, Syria, the Netherlands, Iraq, Turkey, Tanzania, Lebanon, and Libya), arriving on H M S Yanbu. The total evacuees thus far are 356 persons, (101 Saudi nationals and 255 belonging to 26 nationalities).

The Kingdom worked to provide all the necessary needs of foreign nationals in preparation for facilitating their departures to their countries.
