Good Afternoon,

I thought that you or your organization may be interested in the attached closing statement from the G20 Interfaith Forum.

The five-day forum brought together prominent religious leaders from across the fair spectrum, interreligious leaders, and distinguished members of faith-based organizations as well as government officials, senior officials of United Nations entities, opinion formers, and more than two thousand participants from all over the world to debate a wide array of issues ranging from hate speech to Covid-19 to gender parity and economic displacement.

The forum was hosted by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, along with a wide array of organizing partners.
