The precise nature and scope of your assignments will be determined by agreement between the Firm and you from time to time.

The work you undertake in the course of this engagement is being done for the Firm under its direction and accordingly is part of the Firm’s attorney work product. You agree to return to the Firm upon its request any and all reports, correspondence, workpapers, notes and other documents (and all copies thereof) provided to you by the Firm and to deliver to the Firm any reports or other work product prepared by you in connection with this engagement.

If any governmental agency or third party requests the information and documents provided to, prepared by, or received from you during this engagement, whether informally or by administrative summons or judicial subpoena, you will promptly notify the Firm of any such request and will not comply with such request unless or until directed to do so by the Firm or by final order of a court after the exhaustion of all available appeals.

You agree to provide a proposal for work and once that work is completed, the Firm, you and the Client will mutually agree on further fees for additional work as needed. You have agreed that you will not perform any services or incur any expenses in excess of the agreed upon proposal without first receiving pre-approval from the Firm and the Client for those services and/or expenses.
