China’s communist party has a plan — they want to spread Chinese government-style control across the globe.

The first battles are happening in Ukraine right now.

After signing a big treaty — they call themselves “Friends with No Limits” — China and Russia are working together to chip away at American interests.

And they’re waiting for the American people to show weakness.

They’re watching. They’re testing us.

The U.S. must stand strong and show China that we won’t back down from this kind of fight.

Let’s not start surrendering now.

Let’s keep supporting Ukraine. Let’s show Russia and China that we stand for freedom — at home and abroad.
