Basic Facts from...1 PETER (Part 5)

by Dave Rogers

“Love covers a multitude of sins.” The in place of our own. In the same way, the love words of 1 Peter 4:8 actually command Chris- Christians share “covers” many sins by acting tians to “grasp” or “hold onto” fervent love to- to correct or resolve them and not by overlook- ward fellow-Christians, and then states that ing them! James would note in James 5:19-20 such love covers – hides or veils – a that one who accepts correction when has “multitude,” many sins (the definite article “the erred from the right way has been saved from multitude” is not present in the Greek text). death, and the one who did the correcting has The love in view here is “agapé,” the Christ-like “covered a multitude of sins.” In working for the care that puts another’s welfare ahead of our repentance of an erring brother or sister, and own, and if Peter is not directly quoting from then by NOT constantly recalling to them and Proverbs 10:12, the thoughts are nevertheless “rubbing their nose” in the memory of that sin, very similar. we are practicing the “fervent” love Peter pre- scribes here!

Maintaining a fervent, earnest love toward Christian brothers and sisters is not always easy as the conflicts and disagreements be- tween Paul and Barnabas (Acts 15:36-39) and Paul and Peter (Galatians 2:11-14) clearly show. We DO sometimes try one another’s pa- tience, and it is the desire and determination to copy in our own lives the love that Jesus demonstrated for US that should lead us to give more “fuel” to our love toward each other than to the exasperation we sometimes feel! (Note Hebrews 13:1.)

The Holy Spirit did NOT say here, however, that such love “excuses” or “ignores” sins! When we read in Romans 3:25 and 1 John 2:2 & 4:10 that our Father sent Jesus to become the propitiation or “payment” for our sins – fig., to “cover” them – He did NOT solve our sin problem by dismissing it; rather, our sins are forgiven because the penalty they incurred has been paid-in-full by the offering of Jesus’ blood

In 1 Peter 4:11-12, Peter expresses in viv- idly practical terms the same basic instruction Paul had given to the Colossian Christians in Colossians 3:17 – “...whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus,”. Peter touches on both what we teach and what we do by telling us to measure our “preaching” and “practicing” against the “oracles” (words, message) and the ability given to us by God! The point is that GOD should receive all the honor and glory – through Jesus Christ – rather than any of US being exalted or “put on a ped- estal.” (Compare this thought with Paul’s words to the Corinthian Christians in 1 Corinti- ans 1:11-13, where those brethren seem to have suffered from “preacher-itis” instead of honoring God.) This raises a question every child of God should ask and answer for them- selves: “Do my words and actions honor or embarrass my God?”

We need YOUR support!

We have an opportunity to serve the Lord in June by helping our brethren in Villa Ocuilzapotlan, Tabasco, Mexico. We're planning a mission trip to support the church there, and to introduce others to the gospel for the first time.

The dates for this trip are June 10-17, 2023. We will have Bible classes each afternoon, and a gospel meeting in the evenings. We will also visit shut-ins.

The members are interested in purchasing the land and building their currently worship in, but your help is needed. See Jim Pelfrey or Dennis Graham for information.

One reason to help other congregations like this is because it strengthens the church here!
