A Chance To Help

May 31 will be a great day for this congregation and two others we love. On that Sunday we plan to devote our offering to help our brothers and sisters in Cumbernauld, Scotland and Tabasco state, Mexico, who don’t have a place of their own to worship.

We know the church is not a piece of land or a building. We also know what a blessing it is to have a permanent location for gathering to praise our God, enjoy fellowship, teach, and to serve Him. Those two congregations are working toward getting that, and we can help.

Our desire is to give them what the apostle Paul called “the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.” (II Cor. 8:4) He was referring to the way Christians in Macedonia responded to a need experienced by their brothers and sisters somewhere else. Though they were poor and couldn’t afford it, they gave generously.

We’re always thankful that Fayetteville is a generous congregation. This gift we plan won’t stop, hinder or substitute for the work we must continue to do here in our own neighborhood, so we shouldn’t neglect our regular giving. We hope all of us can plan ahead and contribute to it, like the Macedonians did, “beyond their ability” but “freely willing.”
