

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

I am excited to announce our 2024 theme is Worthy is the Lamb. This is filled with meaning for every Christian and for every member of First Baptist Church Brookhaven. I will introduce it today in my morning message and it will also be the theme for our new sermon series from I Peter which I will begin next Sunday, January 14th. I believe 2024 will be one of the most challenging years in our church, community, country, and world. But I am as excited for this new year as ever. God has filled me with a fresh spirit and desire to seek Him, worship Him and work for Him. Join me in asking this question. Does my life reflect the worthiness of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God?

Our International Missions Lottie Moon Offering campaign has two more weeks. This year our church goal is $50,000 and our challenge goal is $65,000. As of last Sunday we have collected $45,791.36. Please give generously as we help share the gospel to people around the world in 2024.

The Lord continues to bless our church with new members. We have rejoiced in the last few weeks as Mark Gill, Tyler Lumley and Seth Sones have joined FBC. We look forward to seeing Mark and Seth baptized in obedience to the Lord's command. Invite someone to church with you this week.

Our full midweek schedule begins Wednesday, January 10th, beginning with Senior Adult Prayer Luncheon at 11:00 a.m. and concluding that night with Worship Rehearsal at 6:30 p.m. Then Sunday, January 14th, our winter semester of Sundays@5, Bible Drills and Bible Buddies along with Student D-Groups begins. Also Pastor Jeff is beginning a new Sunday School adult class at 9:30 a.m. If you are not currently in a class, I encourage you to attend his class and begin learning and living the Word of God with a small group of adults.

People of the Word...People of prayer

Worthy is the Lamb,
Bro. Greg

PS: As the war in the Middle East continues into 2024, please pray for Israel and the peace of Jerusalem. Wars and rumors of wars are increasing across the globe. Pray that evil forces will be defeated, and the remaining hostages are returned safely. Pray for peace in our world that the Gospel might be advanced.

NEW ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

If you haven't attended Sunday School in a while or you are looking for something new, Terry and I invite you to a new Sunday School class beginning this Sunday, January 7th. The class is focused on those 35-50 but if you're not in that age group you're invited as well, couples or individuals. We will be meeting on the 2nd floor of the Education Wing at the end of the east hallway. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me.

Bro. Jeff
Associate Pastor/ Education

I'm excited to announce that our FBC Library has the Freedom Island, Brave Book Series. Kirk Cameron has joined other authors to create stories that support Christian values. Each book has interactive family games that support the story and help build Christian character. These books are excellent for parents to read to their K-3rd grade students.

Ms Renae, the Library Lady, will be in the library on Wednesday nights at 5:00 - 5:30 p.m. beginning January 10th and is looking forward to meeting you.
