

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

Each year, by the first Sunday in December, the sanctuary is decorated with garland and ribbon. The children are ready to lead us in their end-of-the-year worship program in an evening service followed by a fellowship in the Family Life Center. 'Tis the Season: Casa de Fe Fundraiser has the Fellowship Hall brimming with elaborately bedecked tables in anticipation of an overflow of ladies and generosity on a Monday night. And this is just week one of the joyous season.

You can look at your December calendar, you each received last week by snail mail. There is the annual Christmas Worship Celebration with orchestra in there. Keep scanning and you will see the last event before the Blessed Day. Wednesday, December 24th, Christmas Eve Lord's Supper service at 6:00 p.m. The music will be sublime; the main floor filled; the atmosphere is worshipful and warm with cute interruptions of impatient preschoolers and nervous, hushing, grandparents.

Linger in this season and soak it in, so much so that you can carry the Hope throughout next year. You need it. Our world needs it. Jesus Saves!

People of the Word...People of Prayer

With Love,
Bro. Greg
