

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

The Lord continues to add to our church - what a blessing! We welcomed Lee and Brandy Myers and Stella Applewhite as well as witnessed Steven Shackelford's profession of faith and look forward to his baptism. We want every guest to feel welcomed. This is the season also when people move to new cities as the summer comes and a new school year will start in the fall. There are so many in our area that have no church home; who have not heard a personal testimony from a Christian in a long while. Who will you invite this Easter season to church?

Our "Building On Faith" Campaign has launched and today you will see the first video of a series from members and staff. Sunday, May 4th is Pledge Day on Great Day of Praise and Giving. We've been praying the entire month of March for our church and its response to this building campaign. In the month of April, I am asking you to continue to pray for the church - but add prayers for guidance in your personal response to this need. Would you join me in this prayer - "O Lord, God Almighty, in light of Your provisions and blessings to my family; in light of the sacrifices of those FBC members who came before me, who provided great blessings to my family; what O Lord are you calling me to sacrifice for those who will come after me that they too may be greatly blessed in this place." With God, all things are possible, and God chooses to use people, like me and you to accomplish His good will. Together, we will give God all the glory.

Jesus is the reason for this season, too. Like Christmas, Easter can be overwhelmed by cultural celebrations of Spring. Our community uses the same word - Easter - to promote the activities and even borrows some of the same symbols. But sacrifice and atonement and hammers and nails and a crown of thorns are often missing among the pastel-colored publicity. Slow down and reflect on how costly our sin truly is - let's reject and flee the old selfish life. Slow down even more and see how much Jesus Christ truly loves you - embrace the new life in Christ. "Blessed Redeemer, Precious Redeemer. Seems now I see Him on Calvary's tree."

The Way of the Cross Leads Home - the Second Word from the Cross this Sunday.
