From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

A day in the life of First Baptist Brookhaven.

Our Wednesdays are incredible days of worship, ministry and fellowship. Housekeeping is vacuuming by 6:30 a.m. while WeeCare workers soon arrive, as they do each weekday for the 7:15 a.m. receiving of babies and young children.

The Kitchen staff is busy preparing for the WeeCare morning snacks and lunches while also preparing the two church fellowship meals. The church office opens at 8:30 and soon our Sr. Adults arrive for 11:00 a.m. Sr. Adult Prayer Luncheon. The custodians are behind the scenes setting up rooms all over the campus for the evening activities.

Mid-afternoon arrives quickly and Rock Solid Grill cooks begin heating up fryers and grills in the Family Life Center. Teenagers soon pour into the Gym and families arrive for a great meal in the Fellowship Hall. Afterward, Children's mission programs, English as a Second Language classes, Committee meetings and Recharge prayer meeting along with off-campus bible students start in sync. The songs of worship soon begin to echo out from the Student Worship Center.

The night ends with instrumentalists and choir singers and media techs preparing for the Sunday worship service. About 14 hours later, the day is done and Matt Walker, Victor, Pastor Nick and our security staff have secured the building. What a glorious day! It really is amazing to be your pastor and part of this church family.

It's just one day. Our buildings are used six days a week throughout the year and during the Upward season, they are used seven days a week and most nights. Our Building on Faith project is still ongoing behind the scenes with construction coming soon. We need to invest in updating the buildings as tools for ministry and worship. These are exciting days at FBCB. Invite someone to join you this week.

People of the Word...People of Prayer

With Love,
Bro. Greg
