From My Heart To Yours

Dear Church Family,

It was a joy last week to witness Merritt Thompson's profession of faith. We look forward to her baptism soon. The Lord taught us that we must enter into the Kingdom as a child. It is not a reference to age but of spirit – a trusting spirit. Merritt displays this so well. A reminder that as we learn more about our faith, don't lose the child-like quality of simple faith and trust in the Lord, who loved you and gave Himself for you. Who will you invite this week to join us in worship and fellowship?

In addition to our morning worship, today, Sunday, November 1st, our church will meet to ordain Mr. Taylor Newman to the deacon ministry. All ordained men are invited to the Deacon Ordination Council at 3:30 p.m. in the Media Room. Then at 5:00 p.m., our church will gather for a worship service in the Fellowship Hall when we ordain Taylor. Following the worship service, we will remain for a church-wide fellowship. Please make plans to attend.

I am very appreciative of how our church works together in outreach events like the one we held last week. Trunk or Treat: Shining the Light of Jesus was a grand occasion of fun and ministry. Thank you, Mrs. Lisa, for your leadership and all those who worked to transform our main parking lot into a Fall Festival. It was wonderful.

Now, let's turn to the Book of Acts as we follow God's work through the second Missionary Journey in Acts 17-18. Lord, speak to our hearts.

Our Building on Faith renovations continue to progress on schedule. Phase Two – the first floor of the Adult Education Building taking shape with framing and walls going up. We will soon hear an update from the Executive Building Committee. I encourage you to give sacrificially as the Lord blesses you to our Building Fund during these days. The more we can pay off now, the less this project costs. Let's continue to be good stewards and provide for future ministry here at FBC Brookhaven.

People of the Word…People of prayer

I love you,
Bro. Greg

PS – We will hold the Special Called Business Meeting immediately after this morning's worship service, November 1st, to vote on the motion to approve the proposed 2027 Budget as presented.

The 2027 budget will be voted on in a Special-Called Business Meeting on Sunday, November 1st.
