

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

Last week, Winter Storm Fern swept across the nation. It was the largest one in over a decade. Stretching over 2,000 miles, it brought record amounts of ice, snow and freezing temperatures. But the severity of the storm depended on where you lived. Brookhaven was on the line. At one point, those living twenty miles to the north were facing an ice storm but those 25 miles south of us were enjoying spring-like weather. Most of us were spared the harshest brunt, but we all know those who were not. Let's pray for and help those who were most affected, especially our MS neighbors in the northern part of our state.

Last Sunday, we witnessed Evan Smith declare before us that Jesus Christ is his personal Lord and Savior. Evan shared with me that God spoke to his heart and he was saved at the recent E4 Disciple Now Weekend that our Student ministry and other area churches participated in on the campus of Co-Lin Community College. How exciting! We look forward to his baptism.

Men, we will start a new study at Men's Life this Friday, January 30th, at 5:30 a.m. It's called One At A Time: How Jesus Impacted the World. This study will challenge us to minister the Gospel to others like Jesus did. Also, we be reaching out to other men, who like us need to be encouraged to study how God created men to live. What will we be inviting them to? Church, yes! But also an upcoming event.

Men, join hundreds of guys in Southwest MS for a Betterman Conference on Saturday, February 28th. It will be held that day at Southwest MS Community College auditorium from 9:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. Lunch is included. There is no admission cost but you do need to register online. Go to this link - BetterMan MS - SouthwestMS Conference to register now and learn more about the Betterman Conference.

Now let's look at another fundamental of our faith.

People of the Word...People of Prayer

With Love,
Bro. Greg
