“JESUS VS. POSTMODERNISM”

Postmodernism says:

- Truth is _____ – Everyone has their own “truth.”
- _____ is Subjective – What’s real depends on perception.
- Morality is _____ Defined – Right and wrong shift with society.

Big Idea:

If you are genuinely seeking the truth, be honest enough to _____ the one who _____ to be the truth – Jesus Christ.

1. _____ Is Absolute

John 14:1-4

If Jesus is not _____, His claim to divine authority is either _____ or blasphemy. But if He is God, then He is the embodiment of all truth and must be _____ as the Son of God.

2. Truth Is _____

John 14:5-7

Christianity is exclusive in truth but radically _____ in invitation. _____ doesn’t offer options that lead to death; it points to the only way to life.

3. Truth Is _____

John 14:8-11

At the _____ of postmodernism is this: Truth is whatever we make it, God is whatever we _____ Him to be and we are free to live however we please.

But the truth remains the truth, whether people acknowledge it or not.

Philip asked Jesus for more proof, but Jesus had already given him everything he needed.

Many today do the same thing.

“If God is real, why doesn’t He show Himself?”

But He already has.

Through Christ. Through Scripture. Through the Spirit. Through creation. Through history.

Jesus told Philip, “Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.”

And the same is true for us.
