When life is easy, we can begin to believe that our success is the result of our own dedication, wisdom, or intelligence. But when the winds begin to blow and our plans start falling apart, we realize that we need something bigger than ourselves to hold onto. We need a stronger faith that trusts God to carry us to the other side. Acts 27, the apostle Paul remained steady while everyone around him was desperate. The danger was real, but Paul had placed his hope in the promise of God. His confidence was not in the ship, the sailors, or the weather. His confidence came from taking God at His Word.

AUGUST 12

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS

RETURN! Wednesday Nights are back and we are kicking things off with a night you won't want to miss! We live in the most connected time in history, yet people have never felt more distracted and distant from the ones they love. That is exactly what we are addressing on August 12. Start the evening with a church family cookout then stay for a seminar that every single member of FBC Newnan needs to hear.

5:00 PM | FAMILY COOKOUT Burgers, hot dogs, and great fellowship. Come hungry and ready to connect!

6:00 PM | SPECIAL SEMINAR Chris and Wendy Trent, Georgia Baptist Next Gen Catalysts, will share practical tools for staying genuinely connected in a world full of distractions.

Regular Wednesday night activities resume in full the following week.
