R. A. Torrey – “We live in a day characterized by the multiplication of man’s machinery and the mockery of God’s power. The great cry of our day is work, work, work, organize, organize, organize; give us some new society, tell us some new methods, devise some new machinery. But the great need of our day is prayer, more prayer and better prayer.”

John Wesley – “God will do nothing but in answer to prayer.”

E. M. Bounds – “Prayer is the channel through which all good flows from God to man, and all good from men to men. Prayer is a privilege, a sacred, princely privilege. Prayer is a duty, an obligation most binding, and most imperative, which should hold us to it. But prayer is more than a privilege, more than a duty. It is a means, an instrument, a condition. It is the appointed condition of getting God’s aid. It is the avenue through which God supplies man’s (desires and needs).”
