

Servant Leaders Want Others To Succeed!

From Starlight Station
Lesson 2

LEADERSHIP TRAIT - ENCOURAGEMENT

Great leaders help others succeed.

LEADERSHIP GOAL

Your children will learn that instead of being jealous of others' success, they should focus on God and trust in His plan for us.

LEADERSHIP LESSON

The jealousy of Joseph's brothers -
Genesis 37:18-36

WHAT DO I DO?

Have your children watch the Leadership Video, Servant Leaders Want Others To Succeed.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES FOR THIS LESSON:

- Have your children read the Leadership Lesson, found in Genesis 37:18-36.
- Have your children complete the Leadership Questions.
- Watch the Leadership Video as a family.
- Do the Optional Family Activity.

OPTIONAL FAMILY ACTIVITY: GREEN EYED MONSTER

Talk with your family about how jealousy can make us act in ugly ways toward each other. This is why some people call jealousy the "green eyed monster", it's ugly, scary and can hurt you.

Gather a photo of each family member. Get some scissors, glue sticks, green paper, and markers. Have family members ugly up their own photos by adding green eyes and horns, hair, or scales to turn themselves into a green-eyed monster. Have each family member use their own pictures to help them remember that jealousy makes us do and say ugly things to others.

As leaders we should be happy about the success of others and never give in to jealousy. Because jealousy will turn us into a green-eyed monster, and that's not a pretty sight!

MEMORY VERSE:

Help your child memorize this verse.

"A peaceful heart leads to a healthy body; jealousy is like cancer in the bones."

Proverbs 14:30 (NLT)
