Lesson 8

LEADERSHIP TRAIT - EVANGELISM

Great leaders understand their faith in Jesus is news that, when shared with others, can affect them for eternity.

LEADERSHIP LESSON

Your children will learn that, as followers of Jesus, it is our job to tell others about Him and what He did for us.

LEADERSHIP STORY

The Great Commission and the Ascension - Matthew 28:18-20, Acts 1:6-9

WHAT DO I DO?

Have your children watch the Leadership Video, I Will Tell Everyone About Jesus.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES FOR THIS LESSON

- Have your children read the Leadership Story, found in Matthew 28:18-20 and Acts 1:6-9.
- Have your children complete the Leadership Questions.
- Watch the Leadership Video as a family.
- Do the Optional Family Activity.

OPTIONAL FAMILY ACTIVITY: GOSPEL BRACELET

Make a gospel bracelet and wear it. As people ask you about it, you will have the opportunity to share your faith. You will need:

- Black, red, white, green, and gold beads
- Yarn or something to string the beads on for a bracelet

Black bead - Talk about how we have all done wrong things called sin. Black represents the darkness of sin.

Red bead - Talk about how Jesus died on the cross, just like He said He would. Red represents Jesus' love for us, and the blood that He shed for us.

White bead - Talk about how Jesus took the punishment to free us from sin. White represents being freed from the darkness of sin.

Green bead - Talk about how you grow as a Christ-follower by reading your Bible, praying and going to church.

Yellow bead - Talk about Jesus rising from the dead, just like He said He would. He told us that He is preparing a place in heaven for us and we can trust that what He says is true. Yellow represents going to Heaven when we die.

While family members work on their bracelets, use the descriptions above to talk about the meaning behind each bead. After the bracelets are made, allow each family member to practice showing the bracelet and talking about each bead and what it means. Practice regularly, so that everyone remains ready to share the Good News with others.
