

I Will Remember What Others Have Done For Me! From Roanoke Jones Lesson 5

LEADERSHIP TRAIT - GRATEFULNESS

Great leaders show gratitude to those who have helped them in the past.

LEADERSHIP LESSON

Your children will learn that they should remember the good things people have done for them and show gratitude to them.

LEADERSHIP STORY

The Case of Pharaoh's Dream. (Genesis 40-41)

WHAT DO I DO?

Have your children read the Leadership Story. Next, have your children watch the Leadership Video and complete the Child Leadership Questions. If you want to do the Optional Family Activity, have the whole family watch the Leadership Video, then lead your family through the Optional Family Activity.

OPTIONAL FAMILY ACTIVITY: REMEMBER

We all have times in our lives when someone helps us or does something nice for us. Just as the cup-bearer and Pharaoh remembered what Joseph had done for them and did something nice for him, we need to do the same thing. As a family, take a look at the lists your children made (when they answered their Leadership Questions) of people who have done something for them in the past. Choose one or two people from the lists who have done something for the whole family. Think of something you can do for the people who have blessed you and your family in the past and do it. You could write thank you notes, bake them cookies, or send them flowers, but whatever you do, do it as a family. Remind your children that we should remember when others do something to help us and that we should do something nice in return.

MEMORY VERSE:

Help your child memorize this verse.

"They share freely and give generously to those in need. Their good deeds will be remembered forever. They will have influence and honor." Psalm 112:9 (NLT)
