

I Will Tell The Truth!

From Make Things Industries
Lesson 7

LEADERSHIP TRAIT - HONESTY

Great leaders tell the truth even in situations where it might get them in trouble.

LEADERSHIP GOAL

This lesson will teach the children that we should tell the truth, even when it is difficult.

LEADERSHIP LESSON

Blind Man Healed By Jesus - John 9

WHAT DO I DO?

Have your children watch the Leadership Video, I Will Tell The Truth.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES FOR THIS LESSON:

- Have your children read the Leadership Lesson, found in John 9
- Have your children complete the Leadership Questions.
- Watch the Leadership Video as a family.
- Do the Optional Family Activity.

OPTIONAL FAMILY ACTIVITY: SPELL IT AND TELL IT

Remind your family that we all need to tell the truth at all times, but we especially need to tell the truth about Jesus, just like the blind man who was healed in John chapter 9.

To help them remember this, go for a drive and play "Spell It And Tell It," a game where you find the letters that spell "Truth" and tell something true from the Bible or about God. Everyone in the car watches for the letters T-R-U-T-H on signs or vehicles as you drive. Letters must be seen by at least one other player and must be called in the correct order. Once someone has called a letter from a sign or vehicle, no one else can call a letter from that same source. After calling out a letter and where it is, players have to say something true about God or from the Bible. For example: "God loves us," or "Jesus fed 5000 people."

The first person to spell "Truth" is the winner. To make the game harder, you can make a rule that the letter being called has to be at the beginning of the word.

MEMORY VERSE:

Help your child memorize this verse.

"And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns."

Philippians 1:6 (NLT)
