

I Will Resist Temptation!

From Game Show
Lesson 1

LEADERSHIP TRAIT - SELF CONTROL

Great leaders choose to do what God wants by resisting the temptation to do what is wrong.

LEADERSHIP GOAL

Your children will learn that when we are tempted to do wrong, we should resist that temptation and choose to do what is right instead.

LEADERSHIP LESSON

Adam, Eve, and the Serpent - Genesis 3

WHAT DO I DO?

Have your children watch the Leadership Video, I Will Resist Temptation.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES FOR THIS LESSON:

- Have your children read the Leadership Lesson, found in Genesis 3.
- Have your children complete the Leadership Questions.
- Watch the Leadership Video as a family.
- Do the Optional Family Activity.

OPTIONAL FAMILY ACTIVITY: IT LOOKS GOOD

Make a dessert that your family loves, and a fake dessert that looks as much like it as you can. Some examples:

- Use shaving cream to make a fake pie that looks like one topped with cool whip or meringue.
- Use a box covered in icing (or joint compound) to look like a cake.
- Use soap flakes to fill a small empty ice cream container.

Place the fake dessert out where everyone can see it. Ask your family if they would like some of it. When they say they would, ask them how they think it will taste, how they will feel when they eat it, and if they will want seconds. After they have answered reveal that the dessert is a fake. Explain that the dessert looked good and they all thought that it would taste good, but now they know that it would not be good to eat at all. Explain to your family that temptation to sin is a lot like looking at this fake dessert. Sin looks good at first and it might be very tempting, but just like this fake dessert, it won't turn out to be any good. After your discussion reveal the real dessert and enjoy it together.

MEMORY VERSE:

Help your child memorize this verse.

"The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure."

1 Corinthians 10:13 (NLT)
