

The Moment by Fellowship Creative

I'm a child of my father
We're His sons & His daughters
We are a children of promise
But a curse fell upon us

And the burden is heavy
The ground is slipping beneath me
I can feel it, I'm ready
Fire, aim, steady

Woke up in a strange place
With a picture of Your face
Heading into the unknown
A million footsteps from our home

And the journey is scary
The ground is shaking beneath me
I can feel it, I'm ready
Fire, aim, steady, now

This is the moment we awake
Come, feel your heart burst into flames
Shine like the sun in brilliant rays
This is the moment now

Good-bye ashes and embers
I let you fall through my fingers
Letting go of your memory
You are no longer with me

Only love will I carry
The ground is moving beneath me
I can feel it, I'm ready
Fire, aim, steady, now

This is the moment we awake
Come, feel your heart burst into flames
Shine like the sun in brilliant rays
This is the moment now

Only love will I carry
The ground is moving beneath me
I can feel it, I'm ready
Fire, aim, steady, now

This is the moment we awake

This is the moment we awake
Come, feel your heart burst into flames
Shine like the sun in brilliant rays
This is the moment now

This is the moment we awake
Come, feel your heart burst into flames
Shine like the sun in brilliant rays
This is the moment now
