

Stars by Fellowship Creative

Holy, You're set apart
There is no one like You
Who has done what You've done in my heart

Perfect, in all Your ways
And You cover me up with Your grace
Erasing all my mistakes

A love that's higher than the stars above
Deeper than the ocean blue
All I need is You to change my life
Mercy wider than the east to west
Brighter than a morning view
All I need is You to make me right

All I need is You
I give all of me to You

Faithful, You're ever near
Though I walk through the valley
I know that I've got nothing to fear

Righteous, good and true
You are higher than all of my ways
I got my heart set on You

A love that's higher than the stars above
Deeper than the ocean blue
All I need is You to change my life
Mercy wider than the east to west
Brighter than a morning view
All I need is You to make me right

All I need is You
I give all of me to You
All I need is You
I give all of me to You

Spirit come and speak
I am listening right now
Waiting here for You
I want to see You move right now

Spirit come and speak

I am listening right now
Waiting here for You
I want to see You move right now

All I need is You
I give all of me to You
All I need is You
I give all of me to You
