With its members struggling to balance family and club life, WARLOCKS RISING gives an unprecedented look at this unpredictable subculture Friday, July 5 at 9pm ET/PT. WARLOCKS RISING goes inside The Warlocks, one of the country's most notorious 1% motorcycle clubs. The 1% nickname stems from a controversial quote from the American Motorcycle Association that says that 99% of all motorbike users are law-abiding citizens, implying that 1% do not. Today, 1% of motorcycle clubs are considered outlawed by law enforcement and government agencies. Despite this reputation and risk, these Warlocks members devoted their loyalty to the club, putting the brotherly friendship first; no risk is too great. But this loyalty is the root cause of their biggest conflict - trying to balance family life with the violent culture in which Warlocks live. Each episode follows this group of bikers as they struggle to solve their personal problems while 1% true to the lives of Warlocks. But in the end, each of them must choose to sacrifice to pay for the freedom they desire. less than Page 2 © 1996-2014, Amazon.com, Inc. or its affiliates First aired: July 26, 2013 Troy hosted a fight night; Slob and Kimmie refresh their wedding vows.
