IMPORTANT SUGGESTION

We suggest that for the time of visitation and funeral someone remain in your home or a close neighbor maintain a watchful eye during your absence.

TO THE FAMILIES WE SERVE

When you call on us during your time of need, we will serve you with compassion and dignity. Your expression of specific needs and desires for the funeral service allows us to memorialize the life lived in a personal and meaningful way.

In compliance with state and federal regulations, we provide you with complete cost information, including this color coded General Price List and corresponding itemized estimate. If at any time you do not understand what a charge is or how it relates to your arrangements, please stop us for an explanation. We want each family we serve to be comfortable with the funeral choices they make.

Coordinating funeral services requires our immediate attention; please rest assured that we will be here to assist you, even after the service is over. Because the associated administrative issues that follow a death can be overwhelming, we offer our many years of experience and knowledge to help families organize and manage the surviving life affairs of the deceased, including but not limited to referrals and guidance in:

- Probating the will
- Settling the estate
- Filing for life insurance claims
- Providing referrals for elder care services
- Obtaining benefits from:
 - Social Security Administration
 - Veterans Administration
 - Pension and union funds

We are here to help for as long as you need us.

GENERAL PRICE LIST

*Effective as of April 1, 2023
and subject to change*

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

CONSUMER PROTECTION INFORMATION

There are some monument/memorial dealers who, shortly after burial, contact the family and claim to represent the cemetery or the funeral home. These persons will often attempt to sell a monument to a family, receive payment and fail to deliver, or suggest that there are certain requirements for monumentation and that monuments must be placed within a certain period of time. There are no such regulations requiring you to erect a monument or inscribe an existing one.

OUTER BURIAL CONTAINER PRICE LIST (VAULTS)

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

ADDITIONAL EXPENSES

Arranging the funeral ceremony and committal often requires the funeral home to pay others on your behalf. We do not charge for this service. An example of the people who may expect payment in advance include the cemetery, church/synagogue or clergy. Often the timing of the funeral arrangements—hour, date, or holidays—may make it necessary for us to estimate what advances you want us to make on your behalf.

This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you, such as cemetery or crematory services, flowers and newspaper notices. The prices for those items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

OPTIONAL PACKAGED SERVICES

These package charges do not include cash disbursements or anything not expressly stated as being provided. For additional services, please refer to the selections on this General Price List.

FORWARDING OF REMAINS TO ANOTHER FUNERAL HOME

This package charge includes local transfer (within 15 miles) of remains to this funeral home, basic services of funeral director and staff, sheltering of remains for up to 48 hours, embalming, obtaining necessary permits and authorizations (but not the actual cost of death certificates, permits and filing fees) and transportation of remains to Newark Liberty International Airport. It does not include a casket or alternative or shipping container, the use of facilities and staff for any visitation or ceremony—public or private—prior to forwarding the remains, or any sheltering for days on which no post-death activities occur. Nor does it include the charges of a common carrier.

PAYMENT POLICIES

It is not our intention to appear inconsiderate by discussing finances at this time. On the contrary, it is our hope that this review of our payment options will alleviate any confusion.

- Our firm expects full payment for funeral home charges by the day of the funeral. We accept cash, check or credit cards for payment.
- Our firm requires full payment for cash advances by the day of the funeral. We accept cash or check for payment.
- A valid life insurance policy may be assigned to our funeral home up to the total amount of funeral home charges. However, cash advances must be paid by cash or check by the day of the funeral.
- All accounts will be subject to one and a half percent a month finance charge on balances over 30 days from the day of the funeral.

N.J.A.C. 13:36-5.21 – A person who owns 50 percent or greater interest in this registered mortuary also owns 50 percent or greater interest in the following registered mortuaries in the State of New Jersey: Memorial Funeral Home, Fanwood; The Mundy Funeral Home, Fanwood; and Dooley Colonial Home, Westfield.

WARRANTY DISCLAIMER:

Our Funeral Home makes no representations or warranties regarding caskets, outer burial containers or other funeral goods sold by the funeral home.

The only warranties, express or implied, granted in connection with the goods sold with this funeral service are the express written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers thereof. No other warranties, express or implied, including the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, are extended by the funeral home. No burial product or process offered by this firm prevents the decomposition of remains.
