A LETTER TO OUR FAMILIES

Where to Begin

Planning a funeral can feel overwhelming — but you are not alone. For more than a century, Harrison's Memorial Chapel has walked beside the families of West Tennessee and the Mid-South during their most difficult days. This guide outlines our services, prices, and the support we provide so that you can make informed decisions with confidence and care.

Within Hours

When a loved one passes at home or outside a healthcare facility, contact emergency personnel first. If your loved one was under medical care, call their physician as well. In a healthcare facility, staff will notify the proper authorities and your chosen funeral home. If you are unsure what to do, call us at any hour — we are here.

Within the First Few Days

Notify close friends and family. Review any preplanned wishes. We will meet with you to begin arrangements — discussing burial or cremation, services, casket or urn selection, and the story of the life we are honoring. We make every step as clear and gentle as we can.

WITH GRATITUDE

Honoring Our Veterans

We are proud to do our part in honoring our country's veterans. Our duty is to provide your family with professional, dignified assistance — and to honor your loved one for their dedication and selfless service.

Eligibility

Military funeral honors are free of charge and mandated by law for eligible veterans. Eligibility is verified by the veteran's DD-214 discharge papers. Eligible members include:

- Military members on active duty or in the Selected Reserve
- Former military members who served on active duty and departed under honorable conditions
- Former military members who completed at least one term of enlistment or initial obligated service in the Selected Reserve and departed under honorable conditions
- Former military members discharged from the Selected Reserve due to a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty

Traditional Honors

At minimum, eligible veterans are entitled to the folding and presentation of the American flag to the next of kin and the playing of Taps by a bugler or recording. Honors are performed by an honor guard of at least two members of the Armed Forces, with one representing the branch in which the veteran served.

Honors may also include:

- A three-volley rifle salute representing duty, honor, and country
- The U.S. flag draped over the casket
- A final salute at the graveside

Veteran Benefits

We help families coordinate with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to arrange:

Presidential Memorial Certificate — recognition signed by the President.

Headstones & Markers — provided by the VA for graves of eligible veterans and dependents.

Memorial Plots — if remains are unavailable, the VA provides a plot and marker in a national cemetery.

Burial in a VA National Cemetery — gravesite, opening and closing of the grave, grave box, and perpetual care.

Reimbursement of Burial Expenses — see the VA's Guide to VA Burial Allowances for eligibility.
