Funeral Home & Crematory

GENERAL PRICE LIST

Effective as of January 1, 2023

To The Families We Serve

When you call on us during your time of need, we will serve you with compassion and dignity. Your expression of specific needs and desires for the funeral service allows us to memorialize the life lived in a personal and meaningful way.

In compliance with state and federal regulations, we provide you with complete cost information, including this color coded General Price List and corresponding itemized estimate. If at any time you do not understand what a charge is or how it relates to your arrangements, please stop us for an explanation. We want each family we serve to be comfortable with the funeral choices they make.

Coordinating funeral services requires our immediate attention; please rest assured that we will be here to assist you, even after the service is over. Because the associated administrative issues that follow a death can be overwhelming, we offer our many years of experience and knowledge to help families organize and manage the surviving life affairs of the deceased, including but not limited to referrals and guidance in:

- Probating the will
- Settling the estate
- Filing for life insurance claims
- Providing referrals for elder care services
- Obtaining benefits from:
 - Social Security Administration
 - Veterans Administration
 - Pension and union funds

We are here to help for as long as you need us.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to help your family remember, celebrate and pay tribute through moving experiences, meaningful ceremonies and personal services with a sense of dedication, hospitality and warmth.

OUTER BURIAL CONTAINER PRICE LIST (VAULTS)

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

ADDITIONAL EXPENSES

Arranging the funeral ceremony and committal often requires the funeral home to pay others on your behalf. We do not charge for this service. An example of the people who may expect payment in advance include the cemetery, church/synagogue or clergy. Often the timing of the funeral arrangements—hour, date, or holidays—may make it necessary for us to estimate what advances you want us to make on your behalf.

This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you, such as cemetery or crematory services, flowers and newspaper notices. The prices for those items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

An example of known disbursement:

- The Courier Post.....$300 to $700
- Inquirer.....$500 to $1,000
- The Atlantic City Press.....$200 to $400
- Pianist.....per hour $150
- Vocalist.....per hour $150
- Cemetery equipment when needed or required (includes tent).....$130

PAYMENT POLICY

A deposit on the total amount on the accompanying estimated statement of funeral goods and services selected, categories I—V, must be paid before the close of the business day on which the funeral ceremonies fall.

Payment of the remaining outstanding balance, must be paid 30 days from the date on which the funeral ceremonies were held. Accounts are considered past due 30 days after funeral ceremonies were held and are subject to interest and penalty of 1.5% monthly (18% per annum).

FUNERAL PROCESSIONS AND CORTEGES

Funeral processions and corteges are NOT exempt from NJ state traffic laws and DO NOT have special permission to proceed through traffic lights and/or signals or otherwise disobey the rules of the roadway. Our funeral home DOES NOT take responsibility for any of the participating drivers of automobiles in any procession. Our funeral home may choose to identify vehicles in a funeral procession or cortege as a courtesy only. Each driver is responsible for their own actions including driving safely while in the funeral procession or cortege. We will provide directions and contact information, for the drivers, to the destination and reception, if applicable.

THE CREMATORY

Opened in 2010, after years of planning, our new crematory allows your family to participate in the cremation process in comfort and privacy. Our stand alone building modeled after a small ranch home offers ample gathering space. Our witnessing room includes a private restroom and witnessing window.

The main part of our facility is the cremation and processing area. Viewable from our witnessing room, this area is accessible for your participation, if desired.

CONSUMER PROTECTION INFORMATION

There are some monument/memorial dealers who, shortly after burial, contact the family and claim to represent the cemetery or the funeral home. These persons will often attempt to sell a monument to a family, receive payment and fail to deliver, or suggest that there are certain requirements for monumentation and that monuments must be placed within a certain period of time. There are no such regulations requiring you to erect a monument or inscribe an existing one

LEROY P.
WOOSTER

Funeral Home & Crematory

HISTORY

The LeRoy P. Wooster funeral Home was established in 1952 by LeRoy Purley Wooster. The building was originally a large home at the corner of White Horse Pike & Cooper Folly Rd. that was converted into a funeral home and the family residence. In 1962 an extensive addition was added giving the funeral home one of the largest viewing rooms in the area. In 1972, Mr. Wooster added a crematory and the business became the LeRoy P. Wooster funeral Home & Crematory, as we know it today. This unique addition made our business one of only two funeral home operated crematories in the state of New Jersey.

In 1976, founder and owner LeRoy P. Wooster passed away unexpectedly. With the help of professionally licensed staff, his wife, Alice Wooster maintained the business until her son LeRoy P. Wooster received his funeral directors license in 1986 introducing the second generation of the family into the business. Today, over 60 years later, the funeral home continues to be owned and operated by LeRoy P. Wooster who continues his father's legacy with the help of a dedicated, caring and professional staff.
