Close to your heart ... the Home

Some people may feel that their own home is the only place suitable for the cremated body and memories of their loved one. In today's transient society, memorial urns and chests enable families to take the deceased with them whenever or wherever they move. Choose a memorial product or urn that will add to the beauty of your home, while maintaining the durability to stand the test of time.

Unto dust you return ... the Earth

For some, the thought of returning to the soil brings comfort. Perhaps a beautiful garden offers a spot reminiscent of your loved one while still giving you a place to visit. You might leave the cremated remains in one place, or several areas cherished by the deceased. Consider a biodegradable bag in a simple birch box to contain the cremated body until burial or scattering, later using the box to store memorabilia.

A place to visit ... the Cemetery

While not always thought of as a cremation option, burial or interment in a cemetery is the traditional choice of many families. Whether the cremated remains are buried or inurned in a glass-front niche in a columbarium, there are many products available for memorializing your loved one including urns, picture frames and bud vases.

Back to the beginning ... the Sea

Cremation began to be a commonly chosen means of disposition when people realized that sea scattering was a means of returning to one's roots – back to water from which life began. The majestic beauty and rhythm of the waves at sea can aid in the healing celebration of a special life. Choose a fitting theme for an urn and after the cremated body is scattered at sea, a beautiful work of art will come home with you as a memento.

Cloisonné

Elegant Artistry

An ancient art form invented by the French and perfected by the Chinese, cloisonné predates stained glass art. Made from brass, copper and colored enamel, cloisonné is crafted by hand and the finished item is fired in a kiln and gilded. As a result of this meticulous process, every cloisonné piece is a beautiful, durable and unique work of art.

Swan Lake Companion Urn

● 800 SL: This 410 cu" handcrafted cloisonné urn is an excellent choice if two sets of cremated remains are to be placed in the same urn. In addition to the Swan Lake Companion Urn, there may be additional companion cloisonné urns available. Please check with your cremation professional for additional offerings and information. 11.5."H x10"D,410cu"

Cloisonné Sets:

In addition to our beautiful full-size urns, SinoSource offers matching cloisonné keepsake products to purchase separately or as a set. Many families choose smaller urns so that each person can have their own precious keepsake, one of the unique benefits of cremation. Jewel dishes and picture frames capture memories of your loved one or provide a beautiful keepsake for a lock of hair, jewelry, or other cherished memento. A matching bud vase provides a place for a floral tribute in a glass-front niche or in your own home.

Timeless Designs

Each crafted from a solid block, natural marble urns offer the durability of stone and singular beauty forged from the earth itself. Because of the unique, natural process in which marble is created, no two pieces are exactly alike and may vary in color intensity, shade or veining patterns. * The Cotton Earthurns, Cotton Impressions, and Water Scattering Bowls are designed to break down in water. The timing to break down will vary based on water conditions. Therefore, the urn must remain completely dry until it is placed in the water or buried for the scattering ceremony. The urn also must be handled gently to prevent rips or tears because of the pressed cotton material's delicate nature. DO NOT ship cremated remains within this product. Cremated remains should be placed in the biodegradable bag (included).

[°] Float time varies depending on weight of ashes and water condition. The Cotton Earthurns and impressions do not float when placed in water. Calm water will give maximum float time for water scattering bowls.

Just for Pets

A personal touch can be added to your pet urn. Choose from the art designs displayed. As with any personalization, these designs can also be used for other urns. If there is a design that you would like, but do not see represented, please ask your memorial counselor.

Personalization

Honor Their Name

Without personalization, an urn or memorial chest may be seen as just a container. By taking advantage of a myriad of personalization choices, you can make the urn as individual and unique as your loved one. By adding names, dates, memorable phrases, cloisonné appliqués, standard engraved art or custom designs, each urn or memorial chest can be turned into an enduring memorial of someone's life.

Additional charges may apply for personalization options.

Text Options

Names and dates can be added to more urns in any language. An additional line such as a memorable phrase or tribute is an appropriate addition for a full-size marble, stainless steel, hardwood or simplicity urn.
