combined with .txt command-line interface (CLI) for Windows, there is an elegant and powerful way to manage to-dos on the go and on your computer. Another utility, Letters (free), works in a similar way. Most other to-do managers for Android are in the free with paid add-ons or freemium department. ReQall (free) has a great Android app that syncs with ReQall's web app, but syncing is often buggy, and integration with Evernote and Google Calendar, SMS reminders and location recognition are only available to ReQall Pro subscribers for $19.99/year. GTasks (free) is an easy-to-use to-do manager that's ideal for users of Google tasks. It is ad-supported and costs $6.99 to remove. Task list for Android (free) is another great option with widgets and organization of colors and categories. We also support advertising. $1.99 removes them. Finally, Remember Milk (free) is another option and the service was updated this week to make the Android app free for all users, not just those willing to pay $25/year for a pro account. Still, the app is free, but you only have to sync it with RTM's server every 24 hours and do it manually. To bring out the true potential of the app, you have to pay for it. This is not a complete list of to-do apps for Android to say the least. There are dozens of android apps on the market.It works as a stand-alone organizational tool and is just a third-party conduit to popular web services. Do you have any favorites that we missed? Lifehacker App Directory is a new, growing directory of recommendations for the best applications and tools in a number of specific categories. Having an android with you on a trip can make everything a little easier. Track your flight, find things in strange cities, and even translate that cool-looking restaurant sign with the power given by these great travel apps. In Trip It itself, Trip It does nothing app. But if you sign up for a Triplt account, transfer your flight, hotel or rental car confirmation to plans@tripit.com, or Triplt automatically shaves off your Gmail, your entire travel life will be tracked, organized and organized as if you were one of the old-fashioned travel agents. Check the flight, check its status, see the weather you go and the distance to the hotel and get much more. Premium Tryplt users get some more benefits, but the basic Trylt plan, and the app is better than carrying about 20 printouts. As a service to sign up for free travel planner Trip has a magical feeling to it.Read more Trip It | Android Market Kayak You know kayaking, you dig how it combines and hyper-customizes your flight search. On Android, kayaking remains a great way to find the cheapest price on any flight you're taking just about anywhere. And it might be a little more .com for those who find a bit too many checkboxes and buttons on their kayak, like the iOS app. Kayak flights and hotel search | Android Market Google Goggles Google goggles are useful when traveling abroad. As well as identifying brands and artworks, Google's app can translate foreign texts into photos. So, if you're not sure if the sign is heading to the toilet or fire station, ask Google and you'll be relieved (in any way). Android: Google Goggles app for Android can now translate foreign texts you capture (. . . Continue reading Google Goggles | The gold standard for Android MarketFlightView flight tracking is FlightTrack, which runs $5 but has its critics if you are willing to pay. FlightView offers a free (ad-supported) version along with one or two upgrade levels and offers a similar service: if your flight is delayed or cancelled, you'll hear about it. It appears to be as accurate as any other flight tracking tool and the free version can determine if it suits your needs. Flight View Free Flight Tracker | The location of the Android marketplace is, in fact, a built-in feature of maps on the latest Android phones, and it has its own icon in your list of apps. Basically, it's the same as finding yourself on a map and searching for something that's nearby, but it's much faster and more convenient.The default categories are useful in most situations, but adding your own categories to search for is really useful, especially if you rely on a specific bank or other brand name while you're wandering around. Google Maps (with location) | As detailed in the handy flowchart, Android internet calling is the glue that holds any international communication scheme together. It allows you to make international calls to other Skype users for free and mobile phones and landlines return home much cheaper than the rate you get by buying another SIM card or prepaid calling card. Heading to Europe and other parts of the country?There are a lot of companies waiting to charge you.Read more Skype - Android Market | What android travel apps are getting you through your travels? What is the best way to prepare your trip using Android? Disney is a very large media property these days. They own ABC, ESPN, Marvel, Lucasfilm and soon Fox. In other words, there are many ways to interact with Disney's. But I think people looking for a Disney app want more classic Disney characters and experiences. We can definitely help with that. Disney, again, is massive. They have movies, TV shows and music across many genres. We can help you find what you are looking for. Here is the best Disney app for Android.Disney +DisneyNowFANDOMiHeartRadio Family Internet TV (link to Hulu) Everywhere My Disney Experience Ready official Disney app YouTubeDisney + Price: Free Trial / $6.99 per month / $12.99 Disney+ is the biggest Disney app release in recent memory. It includes a bunch of Disney shows and movies and content from Disney-owned properties (such as The Simpsons) and original content such as Mandalorians. It has been a great success for Disney so far and an obvious choice for a list like this. Plus, you can get Hulu, Disney+ and ESPN+ for $12.99, which is honestly the best deal on streaming right now. This is easily the best Disney app. Disney Now Price: TV subscriber login is Disney's current streaming service for free at Disney Now. You can log in to the service using your existing TV cable provider information and access a bunch of Disney TV content. It includes children's shows, cartoon and live action things, classic and new Disney characters, and even Radio Disney. Disney+ is a great streaming service, but you can get more daily Disney content than Disney+, but it's integrated with cable TV providers if you still have one. Fandom by WikiaPrice: Free adsFandom by Wikia is a community of enthusiasts who create these small wiki pages for various media properties. It used to be a collection of apps for different fandoms, but now it's a single app that can use all the topics. Apps are generallyIt provides information about characters, movies, TV shows, and even some games. It's basically a neat way to learn some trivia about Disney movies, shows, and characters. Of course, it's a bit of a niche product. Trivia Buff definitely try this.iHeartRadio Family Price: Free per month / $9.99 There are several different versions of iHeartRadio. But for disney ones, we recommend the iHeartRadio family. It has 80 stations of family-facing music from a bunch of popular children's shows and movies. Of course, it contains a lot of Disney content. You can go to a station dedicated to Disney Princess songs or hit standard Radio Disney for a big mix of music from Disney. Of course, the full version has all of these stations, so current fans of iHeartRadio simply have to press the search button to find these stations. The premium version add a bunch of other features as well as unlimited skips. Internet TV (Sling TV, Hulu, DirecTV Now, etc.) Price: Free/Change It's easier (and cheaper) to watch TV than ever before. TV services such as Hulu, Sling TV, YouTube TV, PlayStation Vue and DirecTV now have a bunch of excellent kid-friendly content. As a result, they also have access to the Disney Channel along with a bunch of backlog Disney content. On Hulu, for example, subscribing to a live TV service will give you a Disney channel, but you'll also have access to movies like Pocahontas. The amount of Disney content per streaming service varies, but at least you can get real channels on all of them. Honestly, as long as you subscribe to a live TV service, you'll get an on-demand title, so this is probably better than cable for Disney's. In addition, Disney has Disney+, ESPN+, and Hulu subscription bundles. Movie Price Anywhere: Free / Movie Price anywhere movies are the best app for Google Play movies. This is not your own standalone streaming service. This is actually a collection of other movie streaming services. Sign in with iTunes, Amazon, Vudu, or Google Play. All the movies purchased with these services are now available in one place. The service boasts more than 7,500 movies and, of course, basically includes tons of Disney movies along with all marvel and Star Wars movies. Disney is likely to have all of those movies on Disney+ when it comes out. But until then, it would be a great place to actually buy and watch Disney movies. The app is occasionally buggy, but otherwise very good. It also comes with Chromecast support. My Disney Experience/Disneyland Price: Free Disneyland and Disney World are two of the most popular vacation spots in the world. They also have an official app. The My Disney Experience app focuses primarily on Disney World. You can use it to plan your vacation, as an interactive map ofAnd you can even buy your tickets and goods there. The Disneyland app is pretty much the same way. The app displays information such as estimated wait times, browser restaurant menus, and interactions with park maps. There are apps for all Disney parks, including Paris, Hong Kong and Shanghai. Those heading to Disney World or Disneyland should definitely have these apps on hand. RedditPrice: Free / $3.99 per month / $29.99 per year Reddit is good for many fan bases, and Disney fans are no exception. The site has dozens of subdits for Marvel Properties, Star Wars movies and, of course, classic Disney properties. You can talk to other people who like what you like and post what you care about. The Reddit app allows people who have never used Reddit before to have moderate control over everything, al aling it may be difficult to adapt at first. Either way, this is a great way to read the news about Star Wars, Marvel, or other Disney properties and discuss those things with other fans. Premium subscriptions remove ads and offer you some additional features as well. Official Disney App Price: Free (usually) We've said again and again that Disney is a huge company. After all, there are a variety of official Disney apps for most of these properties. Some examples include the official Star Wars app, the official Marvel app, the ESPN app, abc's official app, and the list continues to stretch. These official apps are one of the best ways to interact with Disney's large list of media companies. For example, you can watch ABC programming on the ABC app or read the latest Star Wars news in the Star Wars app. You can even read old Marvel comics in the Marvel app. It really depends on the type of content each property makes, but it's still Disney.YouTubePrice: Free / $12.99 Per Month YouTube is an excellent, obvious, choice for a great Disney app. Basically, you can find Disney songs made there along with tons of clips and memes from various movies and TV shows. It's also a place to watch trailers for upcoming movies and shows, reviews of various toys and games, and basically something else you can think of. Disney has an official VEVO channel with more than 11 million subscribers. But again, you probably already knew all of this, so this part of the list is really some confirmation bias. Yes, YouTube is one of the best apps for Disney fans. If you want, you can pay $12.99 per month to remove ads or download videos for offline use. If we miss any great Disney apps for Android, tell us about them in the comments!
