

LABSTYLE INNOVATIONS CORP.
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The following Compensation Committee Charter (the “Charter”) was adopted by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of LabStyle Innovations Corp., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”) on the date indicated below:

1. Members. The Board shall appoint the members of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”). The Committee shall be comprised of at least two “independent” directors of the Board who shall also satisfy such other criteria imposed on members of the Committee pursuant to the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and any exchange or national listing market system, if any, upon which the Company’s securities are listed or quoted for trading (the “Trading Market”). The term “independent director” means a director who (i) meets the definition of “independence” under the rules and regulations of the SEC and the Trading Market (and if the Company’s securities are not listed or quoted on any Trading Market or are quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board or OTCQB Market, the Company shall adhere to the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market for purposes this Charter), (ii) is a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (c) is an “outside director” under the regulations promulgated under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Each appointed member of the Committee may be removed by the Board at any time, with or without cause. Unless the Board elects a Chair of the Committee, the Committee shall elect a Chair by majority vote. Each Committee member shall have one vote.

2. Purpose. In addition to such other duties as may be assigned to the Committee by the Board from time to time, the purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in (a) discharging its responsibilities for approving and evaluating the officer compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company, (b) reviewing and recommending to the Board regarding compensation to be provided to the Company’s employees and directors, and (c) administering the equity compensation plans of the Company. The Committee shall ensure that the Company’s compensation programs are competitive, designed to attract and retain highly qualified directors, officers and employees, encourage high performance, promote accountability and assure that employee interests are aligned with the interests of the Company’s stockholders.

3. Duties and Responsibilities. The Committee shall, among its duties and responsibilities as may be delegated to the Committee by the Board, and in addition to any duties and responsibilities imparted to the Committee by the SEC or any applicable Trading Market or any other applicable laws or regulations:

- (a) Determine, in executive session, the compensation for the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”).
- (b) Review and determine the compensation of the executive officers of the Company other than the CEO based upon the recommendation of the CEO and such other customary factors that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.
- (c) Recommend awards and/or bonuses to be granted to executive officers of the Company under the Company’s equity plans and other compensation or benefit plans or policies as approved by the Board or the Committee.
- (d) Approve the overall amount or percentage of plan and/or bonus awards to be granted to all Company employees and delegate to the Company’s executive management the right and power to specifically grant such awards to each Company employee within the aggregate limits and parameters set by the Committee.

- (e) Review and evaluate the performance of the CEO and the other executive officers of the Company;
- (f) Review and approve the design of other benefit plans pertaining to executives and employees of the Company.
- (g) Approve such reports on compensation as are necessary for filing with the SEC and other government bodies.
- (h) Review, recommend to the Board, and administer all plans that require “disinterested administration” under Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
- (i) Approve the amendment or modification of any compensation or benefit plan pertaining to executives or employees of the Company that does not require stockholder approval.
- (j) Review and recommend to the Board the adoption of or changes to the compensation of the Company’s independent directors.
- (k) Retain outside consultants and obtain assistance from members of management as the Committee deems appropriate in the exercise of its authority.
- (l) Make reports and recommendations to the Board within the scope of its functions and advise the officers of the Company regarding various personnel matters.
- (m) Approve all special perquisites, special cash payments and other special compensation and benefit arrangements for the Company’s executive officers and employees.
- (n) Review the form, terms and provisions of employment and similar agreements with the Company’s executive officers and any amendments thereto.
- (o) To the extent the same has been adopted, review, at least annually, the compensation philosophy of the Company.
- (p) Review the Committee’s own performance annually.
- (q) Review this Charter from time to time and recommend any changes thereto to the Board.

The powers and responsibilities delegated by the Board to the Committee in this Charter or otherwise shall be exercised and carried out by the Committee as it deems appropriate without requirement of Board approval, and any decision made by the Committee (including any decision to exercise or refrain from exercising any of the powers delegated to the Committee hereunder) shall be at the Committee’s sole discretion. While acting within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it, the Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Committee shall have the power to determine which matters are within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it. To the extent that the Company’s securities are not listed or quoted on a Trading Market, the Committee shall determine which of the aforementioned duties and responsibilities it shall undertake or shall be applicable to the Committee.

4. Meetings. The Committee will meet as often as it deems necessary or appropriate, in its judgment, either in person or telephonically, and at such times and places as the Committee members determine. Face to face meetings shall be encouraged at least twice each year. The majority of the members of the Committee constitutes a quorum and shall be empowered to act on behalf of the Committee. Minutes will be kept of each meeting of the Committee. The Chairman of the Committee shall report to the Board following meetings of the Committee and as otherwise requested by the Chairman of the Board.

5. Outside Advisors. The Committee shall have the authority to retain such outside legal, accounting, executive compensation or other consultants or advisors as it determines appropriate to assist it in the performance of its functions, or to advise or inform the Committee. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditor to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any member of, or consultants to, the Company. The Company shall provide for payment of compensation to any advisors retained by the Committee.

6. Amendment. Any amendment or other modification of this Charter shall be made and approved by the full Board.

7. Disclosure of Charter. If required by the rules of the SEC or any Trading Market, this Charter, as amended from time to time, shall be made available to the public on the Company's website.

Adopted: February 8, 2012
