

DISCOVER ALAMANCE

History

Spend an evening reliving the struggles the Quaker's experienced during the American Revolution at the Snow Camp Outdoor Theater. Attend an 18th century militia muster which mimics that of the Battle of Alamance at the Alamance Battleground. Take a leisurely exploration of the Civil War trail markers. Experience a docent hosted tour of historical homes and museums or a self-guided walking tour of the historic downtown, where the textile history in Alamance County is covered from the ground up. Get a glimpse of how life changed during World War II by visiting The Childrey House Homefront WWII Museum.

Wineries & Breweries

Visit the heart of North Carolina where long, warm summers meet rich, river-fed soil worked by agricultural families who have called this place home for several generations. The result? A spectacular brewery and wineries producing unique and plate-tempting wines and brews. Bringing you the best of North Carolina in a peaceful, rural setting. Visit one or all: Haw River Farmhouse Ales, Grove Winery, Iron Gate Winery and Wolfe Wines.

Arts & Theatre

There are numerous galleries in the county, including the Alamance Arts Council, with its bi-annual, nationally renowned exhibits, among the many rotating, year round exhibits. Enjoy one of the many performances at the historic Paramount Theater in downtown Burlington. From Tony-award winning productions to special programming, you will most certainly enjoy these visually stimulating productions for all ages.

Discovery

The Haw River Trail is a 70-mile long multi-use trail following the path of the Haw River. Alamance County is one of 12 local governments that make up the Haw River Trail Partnership. Currently, over 10 miles of trail exist or are in construction. In addition to these walking trails, paddling trips are available through the Haw River Kayak and Canoe Company, located out of Saxapahaw, NC. Their guided trips include Paddle Dinners, Owl Prowls and Whitewater Paddles, to name a few. While in Saxapahaw, visit our 5 Star Gas Station: Saxapahaw General Store.
