

I will present and discuss the complications related to ECMO in the adult and pediatric patient. This data will be from the ELSO organizations extensive data collection over the past 30 years. During the talk, we will discuss the relationship between complication and outcomes of patients on both VA and VV ECMO.