

CNAS Corporate Partnership Program

Bold Level $120,000

- Invitation to three Board Dinners per membership year with national security principals and other leading thinkers
- Opportunity to request six private briefings total during one membership year with CNAS experts, either in-person or by phone (based on expert availability)
  - Includes the option for two of those briefings to include a CNAS executive team member (CEO Richard Fontaine and Executive Vice President Ely Ratner)
- Full benefits of the Innovative level, as listed below

Innovative Level $60,000

- Opportunity to request four private briefings with CNAS experts during one membership year, either in-person or by phone (based on expert availability)
  - Includes the option for one of those briefings to include a CNAS executive team member (CEO Richard Fontaine, and Executive Vice President Ely Ratner)
- Participate as an observer in select CNAS roundtable discussions
- Invitation to the annual Zak Grand Strategy Lecture, including VIP events reserved only for CNAS corporate members. The lecture convenes new and different perspectives to the discussion around American national security strategy
- Full benefits of the Bipartisan level, as listed below

Bipartisan Level $30,000

- Invitation to over 200 special events with thought leaders, policy makers, and business executives
- Receive and have access to:
  - Copies of select CNAS reports and policy briefs upon request, including embargoed study releases
  - Country-specific geopolitical analysis by CNAS experts (approximately 8–10 per year)
  - CNAS' exclusive biweekly email newsletter, as well as the Weekend Reads email newsletter
- Opportunity to recommend candidates for the Shawn Brimley Next Generation National Security Fellowship
- Invitation to CNAS' Annual National Security Conference, including VIP events reserved only for CNAS Corporate members
- Opportunity to participate in conference call briefings hosted by CNAS experts (6-8 calls per year)
- Opportunity to request two private briefings with CNAS experts during one membership year, either in-person or by phone (based on expert availability)
- Prominent acknowledgment in the CNAS Honor Roll of Contributors

