With this book, Houri Berberian and Talinn Grigor offer the first history of Armenian women in modern Iran. Foregrounding the work of Armenian women's organizations, the authors trace minoritarian politics and the shifting relationships among doubly minoritized Armenian female subjects, Iran's central nodes of power, and the Irano-Armenian patriarchal institutions of church and political parties.

Houri Berberian is Professor of History, Meghrouni Family Presidential Chair in Armenian Studies, and Director of the Armenian Studies Program at the University of California, Irvine.

Talinn Grigor is Professor of Art and Architectural History, Modern and Contemporary Global Architecture and Critical, Race, Feminist, and (post)Colonial Theory at the University of California, Davis.

Hosted and co-sponsored by the Middle East and Middle Eastern American Center, The Graduate Center, this event is generously supported by The Jarvis and Constance Doctorow Family Foundation, in celebration of the life of Danièle Doctorow.
