

Significant Snowstorm Blankets New York City Area

By Don Sutherland

Amidst the coldest air mass in nearly three years, the New York City area experienced its biggest snowstorm in nearly four years as of 1 pm on Sunday. The storm ended the record 1,456 day stretch during which New York City had not seen a 4” or greater daily snowfall.

