

CUNY OLS 2026 Summer Archives and Open Knowledge Faculty Fellowship Application

CUNY's Office of Library Services will welcome 14 full-time teaching faculty members to the 2026 Summer Archives and Open Knowledge Faculty Fellowship. This program will support faculty fellows with $5000 of summer salary to expand the use of CUNY archival collections and Wikimedia platforms in the fall 2026 semester. Fellows are required to participate in three day-long workshops at the Office of Library Services 57th Street offices and to use the remaining weeks before the start of the fall 2026 semester to produce either of the following:

- Open access lesson plans for a course they teach in the Fall 2026 semester using archival collections and/or integrating Wikimedia platforms
- Public programming that centers CUNY archival collections or Wikimedia related topics. This can be a speaker series, hands-on workshops, walking tours, interactive exhibitions, or other outcomes that present archival collections and wiki content and practices into meaningful and engaging public environments.

Applications for Archives and Open Knowledge Faculty Fellowship open Thursday, March 19th and are due by 12:00pm (noon), Tuesday, April 7, 2026. Selection decisions will be made by April 21, 2026, and notifications will be sent to applicants.

Information sessions for interested applicants will be held on March 10th, 12th, 16th and 18th. Register at <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/DJe-ttxPRaC3f2xaEIGlG4>
