Note: Text = article, essay, photo, advertisement, video, performance, etc.

1. Identify the text (article, essay, photo, advertisement, video, performance) being analyzed:

Essay

2. Is there a title? Y or N Does it appropriately reflect the content of the essay? Explain or make a suggestion:

Yes, maybe it can be more hooking

3. Write the thesis statement:

The message behind the photo of Colin Kaepernick

4. Does this draft effectively satisfy the definition of rhetorical analysis as set out in the assignment? (An essay that breaks a work of non-fiction into parts and then explains how the parts work together to create a certain effect—whether to persuade, entertain or inform.)

Explain:

Yes it takes a closer look at the image explaining why its provocative

5. How does your partner discuss the author's strategies, purposes, and approaches? Reference at least one example that does so effectively and one that needs work:

- i. Works well: Carefully analyzes the image gives good take
- ii. Needs work: A little repetitive, needs more source

6. How does your partner discuss the content (what the text is about)? Is it effective? Reference at least one example that does so effectively and one that needs work:

- i. Works well: The WNBA story
- ii. Needs work: Maybe be more specific, like who was killed in 2016? Why did it matter, how did it lead to Kaepernick kneeling and what happened with Trump and Obama?
