

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 2016-CFPB- 0009

In the Matter of:

PRESSLER & PRESSLER, LLP, SHELDON
H. PRESSLER, AND GERARD J. FELT

STIPULATION AND CONSENT TO
THE ISSUANCE OF A CONSENT ORDER

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“Bureau”) intends to initiate an administrative proceeding against Pressler & Pressler, LLP (Pressler & Pressler or Firm), Sheldon H. Pressler, and Gerard J. Felt (collectively Respondents), under 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563, 5565, for the Firm’s debt-collection efforts, including filing lawsuits against Consumers in violation of Sections 807(3), 807(10), and 808 of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e(3), 1692e(10), and 1692f, and Sections 1031(a) and 1036(a) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531(a) and 5536(a).

Respondents, in the interest of compliance and resolution of the matter, and without admitting or denying any wrongdoing, consent to the issuance of a Consent Order substantially in the form of the one to which this Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of a Consent Order is attached (Consent Order), and which is incorporated by reference.

In consideration of the above premises, Respondents agree to the following:

Jurisdiction

1. The Bureau has jurisdiction over this matter under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the Consumer Financial Protection Act (CFPA), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563, 5565.

Consent

2. Respondents agree to the issuance of the Consent Order, without admitting or denying any of the findings of fact or conclusions of law, except that Respondents admit the facts necessary to establish the Bureau's jurisdiction over Respondents and the subject matter of this action.

3. Respondents agree that the Consent Order will be deemed an "order issued with the consent of the person concerned" under 12 U.S.C. § 5563(b)(4), and that the Order will become a final order, effective upon issuance, and will be fully enforceable by the Bureau under 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563(d)(1) and 5565.

4. Respondents voluntarily enter into this Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of a Consent Order.

5. The Consent Order resolves only Respondents' potential liability for law violations that the Bureau asserted or might have asserted based on the practices described in Section IV of the Consent Order, to the extent such practices occurred before the Effective Date and the Bureau knows about them as of the Effective Date. Respondents acknowledge that no promise or representation has been made by the Bureau or any employee, agent, or representative of the Bureau, about any liability outside of this action that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such liability.

6. Respondents agree that the facts described in Section IV of the Consent Order will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any proceeding before the Bureau based on the entry of the Consent Order, or in any subsequent civil litigation by the Bureau to enforce the Consent Order or its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under the Consent Order, such as a non-dischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

7. Respondents agree that the civil penalty imposed by the Consent Order represents a civil penalty owed to the United States Government, is not compensation for actual pecuniary loss, and, thus, as to Sheldon H. Pressler and Gerard J. Felt, it is not subject to discharge under the Bankruptcy Code under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(7).

8. The terms and provisions of this Stipulation and the Consent Order will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their successors-in-interest.

9. Respondents agree that the Bureau may present the Consent Order to the Bureau Director for signature and entry without further notice.

Waivers

10. Respondents, by consenting to this Stipulation, waive:
- a. any right to service of the Consent Order, and agree that issuance of the Consent Order will constitute notice to the Respondents of its terms and conditions;
 - b. any objection to the jurisdiction of the Bureau, including, without limitation, under § 1053 of the CFPB;
 - c. the rights to all hearings under the statutory provisions under which the proceeding is to be or has been instituted; the filing of proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; proceedings before, and a recommended decision by, a hearing officer; all post-hearing procedures; and any other procedural right available under 12 U.S.C. § 5563 or 12 CFR Part 1081;

d. the right to seek any administrative or judicial review of the Consent Order;

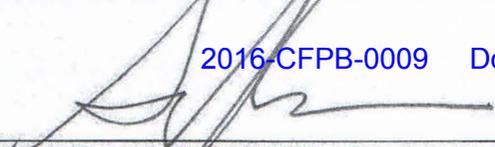

e. any claim for fees, costs or expenses against the Bureau, or any of its agents or employees, and any other governmental entity, related in any way to this enforcement matter or the Consent Order, whether arising under common law or under the terms of any statute, including, but not limited to the Equal Access to Justice Act and the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996; for these purposes, Respondents agree that Respondents are not the prevailing party in this action because the parties have reached a good faith settlement;

f. any other right to challenge or contest the validity of the Consent Order;

g. such provisions of the Bureau's rules or other requirements of law as may be construed to prevent any Bureau employee from participating in the preparation of, or advising the Director as to, any order, opinion, finding of fact, or conclusion of law to be entered in connection with this Stipulation or the Consent Order; and

h. any right to claim bias or prejudice by the Director based on the consideration of or discussions concerning settlement of all or any part of the proceeding.
