In the Matter of The Mortgage Law Group (d/b/a The Law Firm of Macey, Aleman & Searns)
Case No. 3:14-cv-00513

Background:

In July of 2014, The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau sued The Mortgage Law Group (which did business under the name “The Law Firm of Macey, Aleman & Searns”) alleging that it charged homeowners illegal up-front fees, made untrue and other prohibited statements to homeowners, and did not disclose information to homeowners as required by law.

More information about this case, including the final court order, can be found in our press release.

Victim Compensation:

In June of 2018, the CFPB began mailing checks to eligible consumers who paid illegal fees to the defendants for debt relief services.

The CFPB has contracted with Rust Consulting to administer payments for this case and to answer questions from consumers. For questions related to this case, please:
