Hear from Bob

As a Parks Superintendent and City Arborist, Bob believes that the urban forest is vital to the wellbeing of the community. His philosophy has always been that if you have to remove a tree, you need to plant another in its place. Through his work with the Parks Division and Planning and Building Department, Bob strives to maintain, preserve, and protect the urban canopy of the City of Burlingame. He hopes those in the profession will continue to be the advocates for trees, and parks.

About Bob...
