This map illustrates the industrial and commercial landscape along the Detroit River. On the left side, near the Canadian border, are the United States Plaza, Gordie Howe International Bridge, Central Transport Jefferson Truck Terminal, and DeRay Packing Facility. Moving eastward, the Detroit Bulk Storage (Revere Dock) and Detroit Waterfront Petroleum Terminal are prominent. Further east, the Army Corps of Engineers Boatyard and Lofarge Windsor Aggregate Dock are situated. The right side of the map shows a dense urban area with streets like Mill Street, Sandwitch Street, and Chippawa Street. Notable landmarks include the General Brock Public School, St. Mary's CBM Cement Plant, and the Maryvale residential area. The Detroit River flows through the center, with several bridges crossing it, including the Gordie Howe International Bridge and the United States Bridge. A scale bar at the bottom indicates distances up to 500 meters.

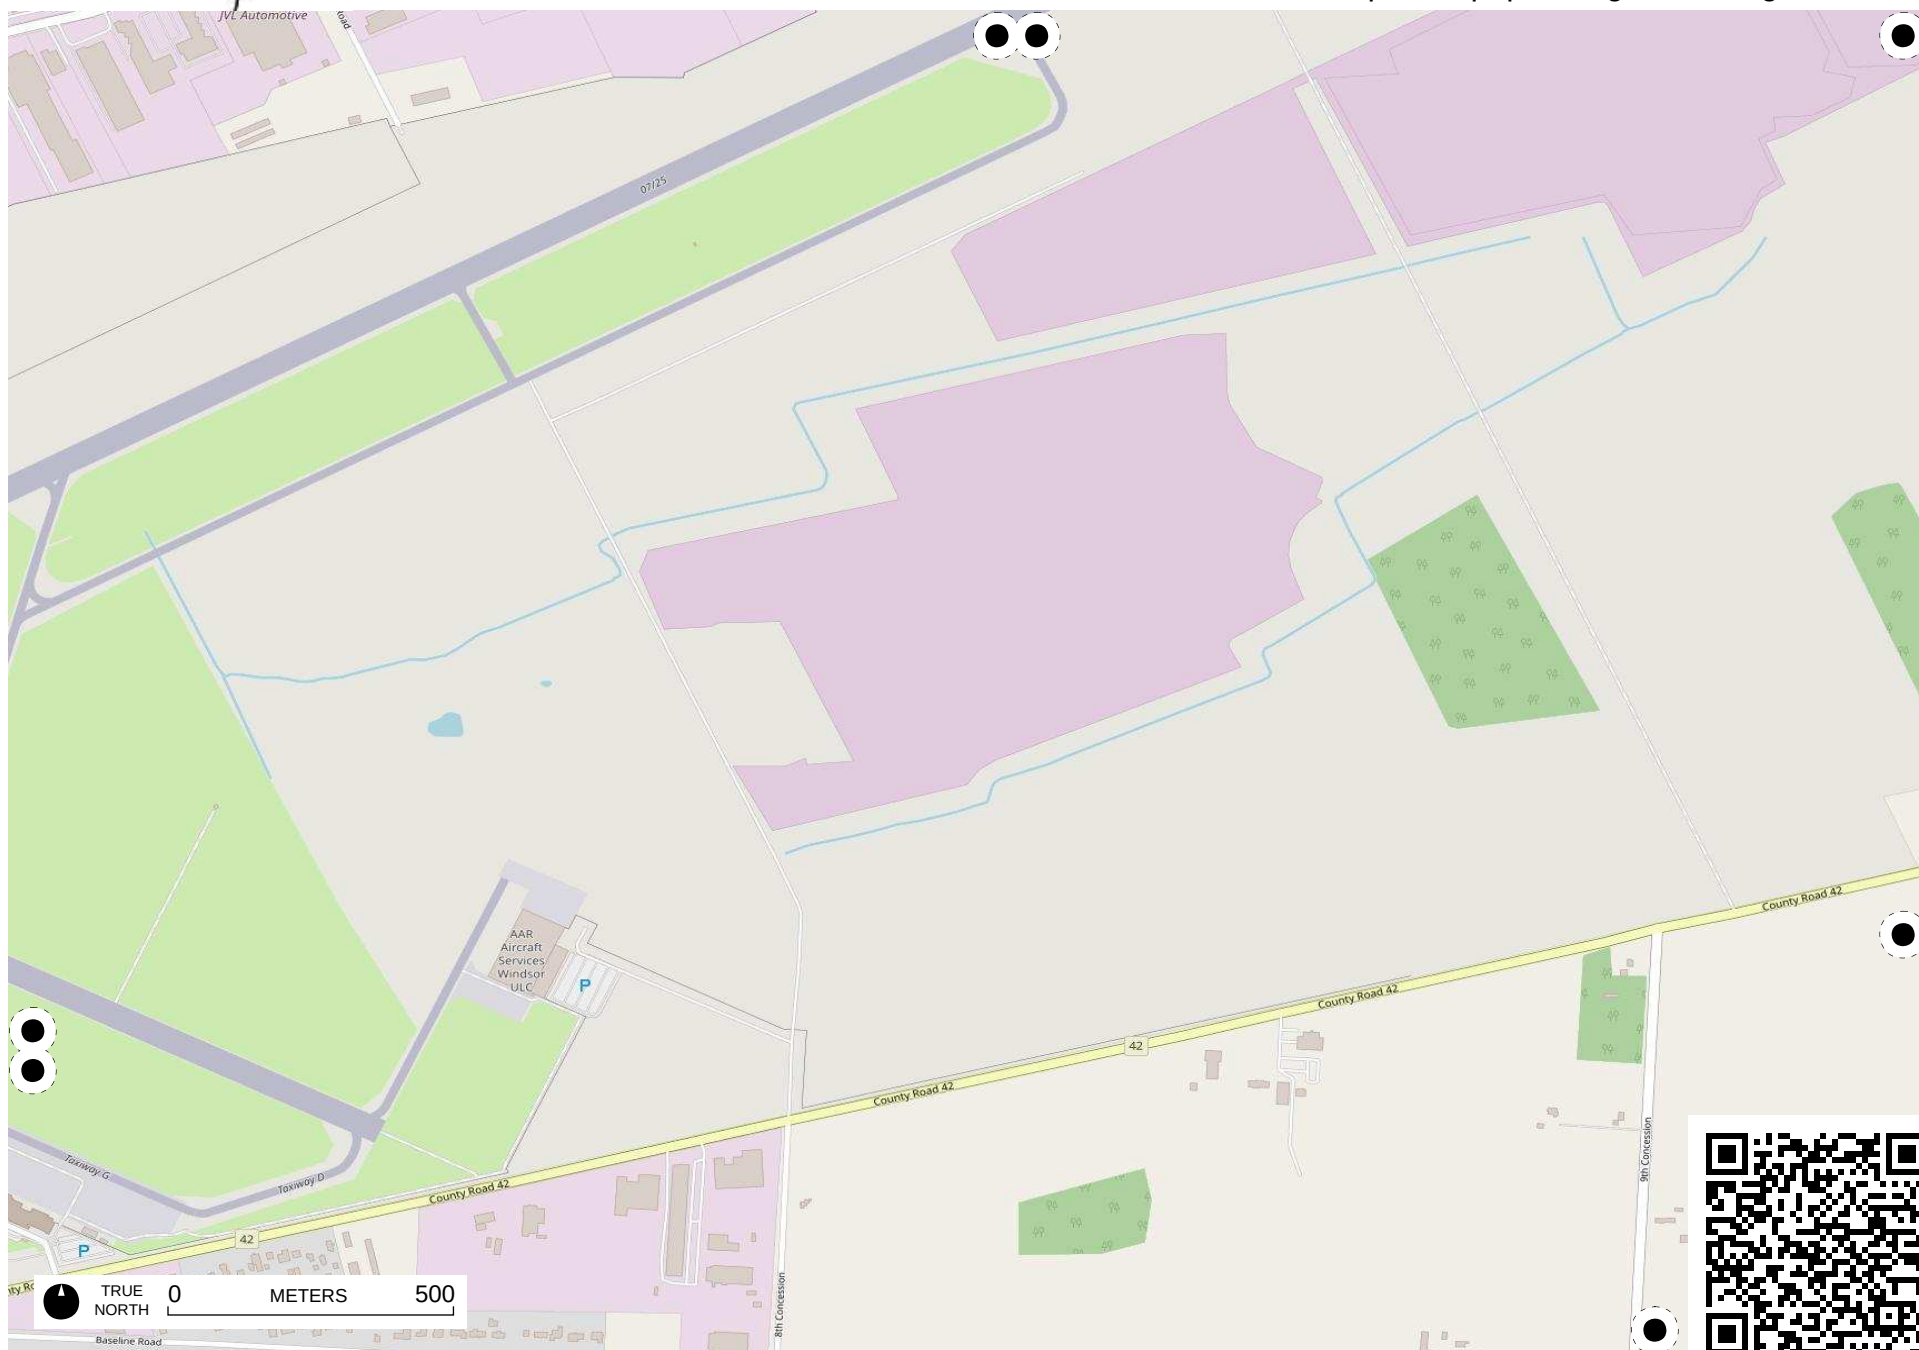

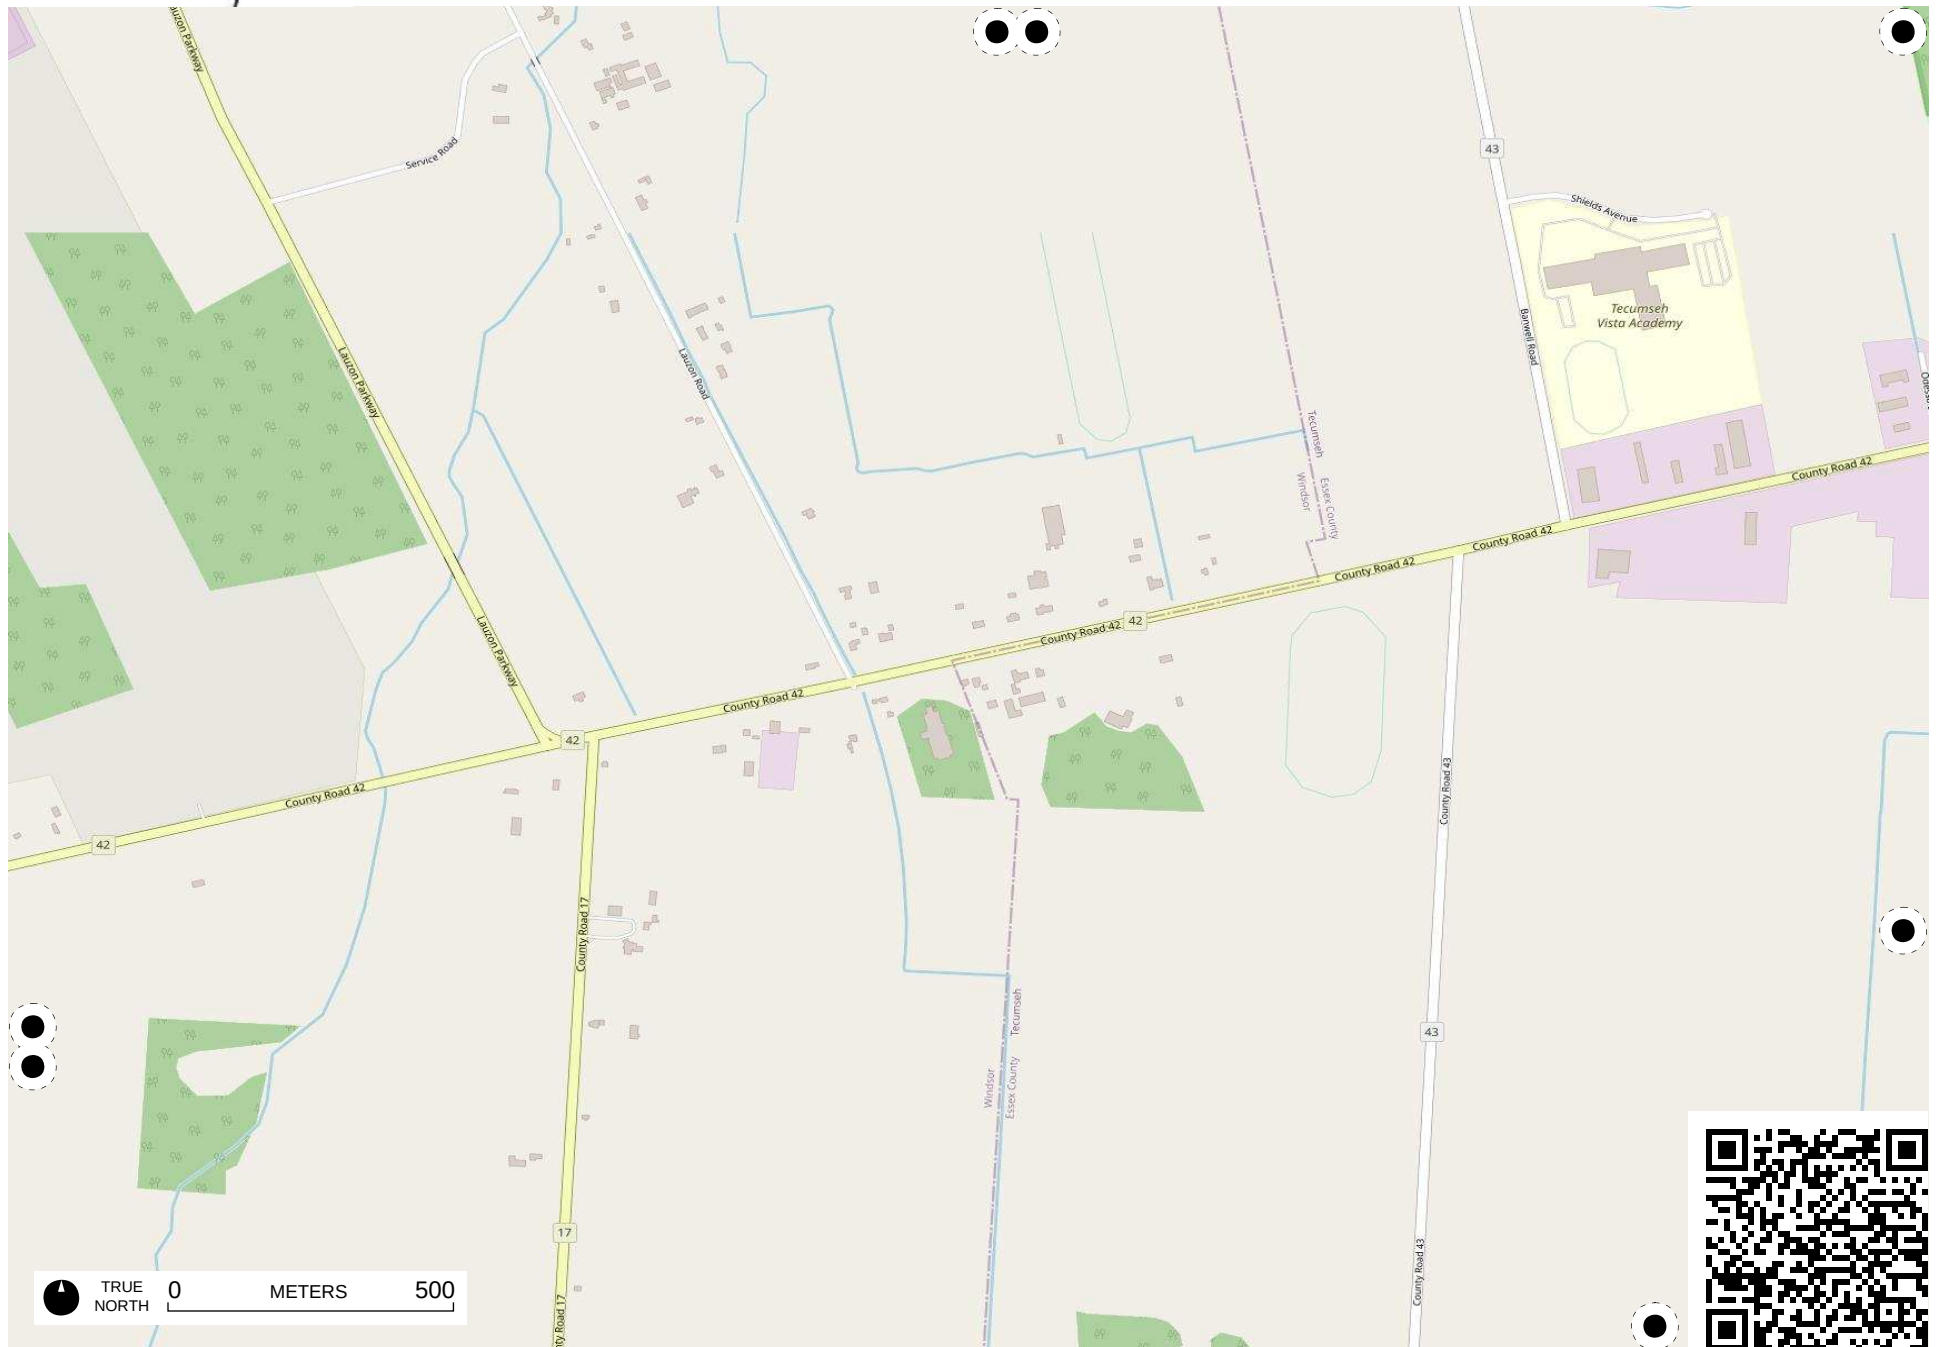

This is a detailed street map of Dearborn Heights, Michigan. The map shows a grid of streets, including major roads like US 24 and the Detroit Industrial Expressway.
