The map illustrates the Gandhi Mandapam complex and its surroundings. The central feature is the Gandhi Mandapam, a large, semi-circular structure. To its north, the Sardar Patel Road runs horizontally, with a flyover crossing over it. The road is flanked by various buildings, including the Department of Textile Technology, Alagappa College of Technology, and the School of Architecture and Planning. To the south of the main hall, there is a large green area with a circular path, and a smaller building labeled 'Rajaji Memorial'. Further south, the Mahatma Gandhi Library and the Cancer Institute are visible. The map includes a scale bar (0 to 100 meters) and a north arrow. A QR code is located in the bottom right corner.
