This is a detailed street map of a neighborhood in Le Mans, France. The map is centered around a roundabout (Place Adrien Tironneau) where several major roads intersect. Key streets include Avenue Jean Jaures, Rue du Champ de Mars, Boulevard Jean Jacques Rousseau, and Avenue Felix Geneslay. To the north, the L'Huisne river flows, and a railway line runs parallel to Avenue Jean Jaures. The map shows various urban features: buildings, parks (like Impasse Scarron Parc), and landmarks such as 'Le Mans Pontieue' and 'Salle municipale Henri Barbin'. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates a distance of 0 to 100 meters. A QR code is located in the bottom right corner. The map uses a color-coded system to distinguish between different types of roads and areas, with blue for water, green for parks, and various shades of grey and brown for urban areas and roads.

An aerial map of a residential area in Laigné, France. The map shows several streets: Rue de Laigné (D 139) running vertically on the left, Rue Edmé Bouchardon running diagonally at the top right, and Avenue du Panorama running horizontally across the middle. Buildings are shown in various shades of brown and tan. A green area, likely a park or sports field, is visible on the left. A QR code is located in the bottom right corner. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates a distance of 100 meters. The text 'Laigné' is visible at the bottom left, and 'Voie de la Liberté' is visible at the bottom right. The map is overlaid with a grid of white lines. There are also some blue 'P' markers on the map, possibly indicating parking areas. The map is framed by a white border with black circles at the corners, suggesting it might be a page from a book or a document.
