

This topographic map depicts the Tray Mountain region. Key features include the Appalachian Trail, which is shown as a dashed red line winding through the terrain; Tray Mountain Road, a solid white line; and Brier Creek Bald, a high-altitude area marked with a black dot and labeled. The map uses brown contour lines to represent elevation, with labels such as 1000, 1100, and 1200 meters. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates a distance of 500 meters, and a north arrow is located in the bottom right corner. A QR code is positioned in the bottom right corner of the map area. The map is overlaid with a grid of small, light green squares.
