

This is a black and white street map of a district in Paris, France. The map shows a grid-like pattern of streets. Key streets include Rue de la République running vertically on the left, Rue Saint-Martin running diagonally across the middle, and Rue du Général de Gaulle running horizontally at the bottom. Other visible streets are Rue Pasteur, Rue Felix Guyon, Rue Roland Garros, Rue Sainte-Marie, Rue Fénélon, Rue Milius, Rue Philibert, Rue Tourette, Rue Gilbert des Molieres, Rue Camille Vergoz, Boulevard Lacazeade, Rue Lucien Gaspardin, Rue Marechal Leclerc, Rue de Paris, Rue Jean Chatelet, Ruelle Amelin, Quai Ouest, and Quai Est. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances up to 150 meters. A QR code is located in the bottom right corner. The map also features several circular symbols, possibly representing parks or specific landmarks.

[illegible][illegible]

