

Norma Wendt

Norma is currently Division Chief for both the Putnam and St. Johns Offices of Public Defender James S. Purdy, Seventh Judicial Circuit. In 2006, she joined the Public Defender's Office as a juvenile attorney and defended children in both counties wherein she had been a juvenile prosecutor and supervisor. As an Assistant State Attorney for 13+ years, Norma handled misdemeanor, juvenile and capital cases. Before joining the public sector, Norma worked as a plaintiff's attorney for 5+ years, handling medical malpractice and product liability cases. Norma graduated from the University of Florida (Go Gators!) twice, with law as a second career, which followed a Masters degree in Speech-Language Pathology in 1978.
