Article I: Name of Organization
Section A. Environmentalists of Color, Organized (ECO)

Article II: Club Purpose
Section A.
ECO will serve as Pitzer’s environmental club for any students that have been historically underrepresented in the environmental movement. The purpose of this club is to create a safe space for any students of color that are interested in environmental issues.

Section B.
We hope to create an alumni network of POC in the environmental field, create an internship database, volunteer opportunities, and host many other events revolving around the needs of our members.

Section C.
This club benefits the greater Pitzer community by providing a safe space for students to discuss the intersectionalities that come with studying and/or being involved with the environmental movement and being a student of color.

Article III: Membership
Section A:
This club is open to anyone from the Claremont Colleges, including 5C students, staff, and professors; however, only currently registered Pitzer students can be considered active members, can vote, and can hold office.

Article IV: Officers/ Elections
Section A: Club Officers include a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Discussion Leader, and Alumni Liaison

Section B: The duties of the club officers shall be:
1) President: Serves as the official representative of ECO. They will convene and chair all club meetings

2) Vice President: The Vice President will assist the President with all club matters. They may propose and vote upon all club matters.

3) Secretary: The secretary records and distributes the minutes of all club meetings. They may propose and vote upon all club matters.
4) Treasurer: The treasurer handles all club financial matters including but not limited to: collecting receipts, processing RFCs, and keeping an accurate budget for the club. They may propose and vote upon all club matters.

5) Discussion Leader: The discussion leader is a rotating position, and the leader will bring a topic to be discussed during that week’s meeting.

6) Alumni Liaison: The alumni liaison shall oversee the alumni google doc, and will work to connect members with internships and other connections.

Section C:
Any active member may put forth their name for any officer position. The officer must be confirmed with a majority vote by ECO’s active members. A Google Poll or other voting website will be used to elect these positions.

Section D:
Elections will occur at the beginning of Fall semester for the first election of our existence, and then we will have elections at the second to last meeting of each semester.

Section E:
Officers will hold their positions for one semester, and then can run for reelection the following semester.

Section F:
If officers are not fulfilling the responsibilities of their role, ECO members will bring up concerns to the officer, and if improvement has not been made within one month the officer may be removed with a ⅔ majority vote of the club.

Article V:

Section A:
Meetings will be held biweekly, and chaired by president. Meetings will be announced via our Facebook group and via student-talk@pitzer.edu. These announcements will include an agenda and the location of the meeting for that week.

Section B:
In case of special or emergency meetings, officers will notify all active members directly via email, Facebook, and student-talk.
Section C:
Quorum is 8 active members or the majority of active members, whichever number amounts to the most.

Article VI:

Section A:
An amendment may be initiated by any member of the club and passed by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present at the meeting.

Section B:
We will notify active members that an amendment is going to be voted upon through a Facebook post. All constitutional amendments, additions or deletions must be filed with Student Senate within one week of adoption.

Article VII:

Section A:
Dissolution will be decided by a vote of active members.

Section B:
Dissolution may only be approved by a vote of two-thirds of the active members of the group.
